

Dear Year 6 Students,

When I started at secondary school I was worried about loads of homework.

I was surprised that there were loads of positives, such as: the older years are very helpful when you don't know where to go, the staff made the transition very smooth, we got a reasonable amount of homework.

One piece of useful advice from me is that you shouldn't be shy but be outgoing.

Omar