27th May 2021

Dear Y11 Pupils and Parents,

Y11 has been an unusual year for you all and you have done remarkably well in maintaining focus on your GCSEs.

When schools closed in March 2020, nobody would have imagined the chaos and disruption that would continue into your Y11. You have handled this with remarkable resilience and we are very proud of you.

Your attendance at Lesson 6 demonstrated just how independent you are and much you cared about making progress.

Post May Half term

We are offering a timetable of transition activities to support you with preparation for 6th form college. This timetable is attached to this letter and runs from Wednesday 9th June until Friday 25th June.

Attendance is voluntary; however, all pupils must wear full school uniform and sign in at student reception. You only need to attend for the sessions you are interested in.

Miss Boyd and Mrs Walton are available to support you with careers information.

Results Day

Results Day will be on August 12th.

Our provisional Results Day schedule will be as follows:

- 9.30 – ASH
- 9.45 – MAPLE
- 10.00 – OAK
- 10.15 – ROWAN

'Be the best you can be'

If we need to make amendments to this plan due to Coronavirus restrictions, we will be in touch.

Please return any text books or revision guides that you have at home – you can bring them on results day. If you have a school laptop, please return it as soon as possible.

We would like to wish you all the best for your future – you will always be part of the Burnage family.

Best Wishes,

K Harrison
Headteacher
